

Hamlet talks about various things that make life difficult. For example, he mentions 'the oppressor's wrong'. Can you give a modern example of this?

Can you match these to the following examples with Hamlet's descriptions?

Example	Hamlet's description
A - Your arrogant friend never treats you with respect	1. The whips and scorns of time
B - You feel old	2. The proud man's contumely
C - The flowers you send to someone you like are returned	3. The pangs of despised love
D - Your legal case takes years to be decided	4. The spurns that patient merit of the unworthy takes
E - You are always nice to someone who treats you badly	5. The insolence of office
F - Your boss is rude to you all the time	6. The law's delay

Have you experienced any of these problems? Can you add some more examples?