

Task: Match the Shakespeare text to the modern translation.

1.	When I do name him, let it be thy part to praise him more than ever man did merit:
2.	Then go we near her, that her ear lose nothing of the false sweet bait that we lay for it.
3.	She cannot love, nor take no shapenor project of affection, she is so selfendeared.
4.	I pray thee, cease thy counsel, which falls into mine ears as profitless as water in a sieve:
5.	I say, thou hast belied mine innocent child; Thy slander hath gone through and through her heart, And she lies buried with her ancestors.

a.	You have ruined my innocent daughter. Your slander has broken her heart and killed her.
b.	She's so in love with herself she doesn't even know what love is.
c.	Then let's get closer so that she can overhear what we're saying and take the bait
d.	When I mention his name you need to say what a great person he is.
e.	Please stop giving me advice. I'm not listening to you.
