Task 4: Discuss these quotes with your classmates.

- You can't believe anything you read or see in the news.
- The news media has no respect for the lives of normal people.
- All the news you hear is bad news.
- Famous people earn a lot of money from being in the news. They shouldn't complain when they have reporters following them.
- We need to see what is happening in the world. Visual images are important for us to be able to understand.
- We don't need to see the horrific things that happen in the world. Images and videos give us too much detail and invade the privacy of real people.
- The world is getting smaller as news is travelling faster.
- Within ten years newspapers won't exist, as we will get all our news online.
- Bad news travels fast.
- Fake news is a real danger to society.

News

Task 5: Imagine that you are a journalist. You have been asked to interview somebody who has been in the news. Decide who it is and write questions to ask them.

Then carry out a role play with a classmate. One of you is the journalist, and the other is the person who has been in the news.
