

Task 2: You are going to listen to a story by Nino, a woman who migrated to Sofia in Bulgaria. Before you listen, try to guess the information in the summary below.

Nino comes from 1. _____. She moved to Bulgaria 2. _____ years ago. Her father decided to move after he saw a neighbour 3. _____. The town where she first lived in Bulgaria was very 4. _____ to her home town. Nino had a lot of problems with bureaucracy, especially when she 5. _____.

Now listen and complete the summary.

Task 3: Listen to two more people talking about their experience of moving to Sofia in Bulgaria. Complete the table.

Name	Dmitry	Magdalena
Country of birth
Number of years in Sofia
Reason for moving to Sofia
Things the speaker likes about Sofia
Things the speaker dislikes about Sofia
Example of 'bureaucracy'

Task 4: The parents of six children who moved from their birth countries to Cardiff in Wales were asked these questions:

- What aspirations do you have for your children?
- What do you see when you look out of your window?

Read their answers and complete them using the words in the box.

dreams comfortable integration multicultural opportunities studies

1. As I stand and look out of my window, I can see my children's future brighter. In my opinion Cardiff is a city of _____ for my family. I can only hope and encourage my family and children to use them wisely.
2. Culture and tradition are essential to mark one's identity. It is important to note that culture and tradition as seen in the context of _____ are positive, otherwise they can restrict progress. This is how our family looks at our present and future.
3. The city has openly and freely embraced my children; they are integrating and getting on with things. My hope for Alisha is for her to have a bright and happy future, doing what she really enjoys and hopefully it will enable her to have a _____ standard of living.
4. In this city of Cardiff, we see our children finishing their _____ at school, meeting new people and getting better knowledge. We see our children getting ready for their own lives. We can see just a bright, nice future.
5. What Cardiff is giving to our children is a _____ world and a place to play a role, open eyes to those who have never been away, a model to export... a real power in our children's hands.
6. Our situation in Poland wasn't good enough. We came to the UK hoping for a better future for our children. The city is very nice; people are helpful and very friendly. My children will have more opportunities. I think our _____ have partially come true.