

Transcript – Families

Ali: Hi, Samir!

Samir: Hey, Ali!

Ali: How are you?

Samir: I'm good. How about you?

Ali: I'm good too. What did you do today?

Samir: The same as usual, really. I got up early and walked my dog before school. How about you?

Ali: I got up early too. I helped my little brothers get ready for school. I made them breakfast and put their books in their bags. There's always so much to do with a big family!

Samir: Yeah! You have a lot of siblings, right?

Ali: Yeah, I have two brothers and four sisters! It's really busy at home. But after school, I teach my sisters how to play basketball and that's really fun. What about you?

Samir: It's just me and my dad, so it's very quiet. That's why I got my dog, Bruno. He's family too!

Ali: Awww. My house is never quiet. There's a lot of work to do, but I like having a big family.

Samir: Yeah, it sounds fun! Bruno is a lot of work too, but I love him! He's like my best friend. I'm teaching him some new tricks.

Ali: That's so cool!! I want a dog, but we have too many people in the house!

Samir: (laughs) Yeah. Well, you can always play with Bruno!

Ali: Thanks! And you can always play with my little brothers and sisters!

Samir: OK, it's a deal!