

Start

Where did the narrator go to take pictures?

Why did the dress seller hide his face?

Why did the woman want to exchange her dress?

What picture did the narrator take at the end?

Where were the scrap dealers collecting materials?

Where did the narrator go later?

What kind of materials did the scrap dealers collect?

Did the narrator drink his tea?

Why did the scrap dealer's father win 2.000 lira?

What was the dress seller afraid of?

Who gave 2.000 lira to the scrap dealer's father?

Why was the dress seller wearing a dress?

What was in the woman's bag that was stolen?

When did the dress seller leave his school?

Why didn't the onion seller want his photo taken?

Why did a man give the dress seller a gun?

What was the dress seller's job when he was a child?

Who paid for the tea?

Why were the onion seller's hands dirty?

Name ten things that start with the letter "s" in a minute or wait for two turns

Name five fairy tales in 30 seconds or go back 3 spaces

Answer the next question or go back to start

Tell ten things that you did last summer in 30 seconds or go back 3 spaces

Name ten things that start with the letter "f" in a minute or wait for two turns

Sing an English song for 30 seconds or go back 2 spaces

Run around the classroom in 10 seconds or go back to start

Name ten animals in 15 seconds or go back to start

Name ten adjectives or go back 4 spaces

Name ten fruits or go back 2 spaces

Name ten things that start with the letter "b" in a minute or wait for two turns

Name five weather conditions or go back 3 spaces