

Work in pairs. Write adjectives that describe the narrator.

Work in pairs. Write adjectives that describe the ex-footballer.

Activity 2 Handout A

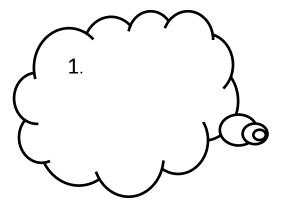

Write who said these sentences in the story. Compare your answer with a partner.

1.	"Welcome!" (line 16)
2.	"I broke your sculpture." (line 17)
3.	"Repairs are my job" (line 18)
4.	"What I really need is a tailor's", (line 19)
5.	"This tear needs repairing." (line 21)
6.	"My parents only bought it yesterday." (line 25)
7.	"I've been waiting a long, long time to repair a football shirt." (line 26)
8.	"Are you a striker?" (line 34)
9.	"I play for both the street and the school team." (line 37)
10	. "My dad doesn't see football as a profession." (line 39)
11	. "I feel like a lion with a golden mane running towards the goal." (line 43)
12	. "The tear hardly shows now." (line 47)
13	. "Why didn't you become a football player then?" (line 54)
14	. "Follow your dreams," (line 57)
15	. "Do you understand now?" (line 68)

Activity 3 Handout A

Write what the characters are actually thinking!

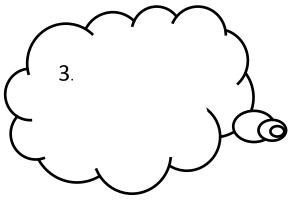

"What do you mean? Is this the first time you're going to repair a football shirt?

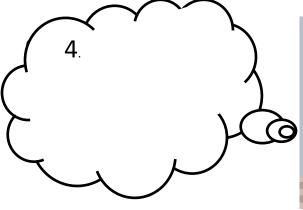

Welcome!

"I'm sorry... I broke your sculpture."

I've been waiting a long, long time to repair a football shirt."

Activity 4 Handout A

Read the lines from the story.

- As soon as we had been playing for ten minutes, the shirt sleeve ripped when I made a turn.
- 2. "It's OK...I've been waiting a long, long time to repair a football shirt."
- 3. "People, who choose a career they really desire, become successful and happy."
- 4. "Follow your dreams," he said.
- 5. Could he really be Orhan, the ex-footballer?
- 6. If I told my dad all about this he would probably just say, "You must have dreamed it son."

Which is the most important line of the story? Write your reason.

Activity 5 Handout A

Scan the text and write the answers to these questions. Discuss your answers in groups.

>	What does the title of the story tell you?
A	Where does the story take place?
>	Who are the characters in the story?
>	What is the story about?
>	What questions do you have about the story?