

ACTION CHARADES!

Language: walk, float, climb, swim, slip, trek, run, chase

Resources: Action charade sentence strips

- a) Cut out the strips.
- b) Demonstrate the first sentence, or ask one of your children to mime for you. Elicit what you're/they're doing from the rest of the class.
- c) Ask for a volunteer to mime the next sentence. The class guess what they're doing.
- d) To add a competitive edge to the activity, divide the class into teams. Nominate a member of one of the teams to mime the next sentence. The team that guesses the mime wins a point and nominates another team member to do the next mime.

You're walking through the jungle.

✂-----

You're floating on the ocean.

✂-----

You're climbing in the mountains.

✂-----

You're swimming in the river.

✂-----

You're trekking in the desert.

✂-----

You're slipping on the iceberg.

✂-----

You're running home.

✂-----

You're chasing after me.